President's Report

1. Thanks to all who helped out with Middle school band info night and the All District Band Festival at Kenmore.
2. Arlington Band Assessment at Wakefield, Thursday, March 9 3:30 p.m. to 9:00 p.m.
  - a. Looking for 9 more volunteers for registration, judge helpers, technical lead & concessions.
3. District 12 Band Assessment at Washington-Lee on March 17-18.
  - a. Looking for volunteers to be observers only, might involve parallel volunteering with W&L parents. Wakefield will be hosting this next year and want to get the experience transitioned from W&L.
4. Spring Trip is April 21-22. They will play an event near Freedom Park, attend a concert, visit the museum and visit the University of Delaware. Final payments due and Cathy will assist as needed with room assignments.
5. Jazz Café is May 19th. Thanks for those who attended the first planning meeting on Feb 12. A donation google docs and basket donation sign up genius is out for collecting donations. We are planning to go on sale with tickets on April 1. Ticket prices are as follows:
  - A) Students (that are not volunteering but just attending) $10.00
  - B) General seating tickets prior to event (balcony and risers) - $15.00
  - C) General admission at the door - $20.00
  - D) Seating at tables - $25.00
  - E) Seating at tables at the door - $30.00. We are hoping to try to sell more in advance so we have a better handle on the crowd, food etc.Baskets have been picked by each of the band sections (6 baskets– Beach, Movie, Sport, Chocolate, Candy, Craft) to get donations. Additional baskets for donations have a sign up genius that went out on charms.
6. Late rehearsals and clinics will take place on Wednesday evenings with Mr. Fisher sending out emails through Charms in prep for the March Assessment.
